

SKIN SERVICES

SELF FUNDING AND INSURED PATIENTS ACCEPTED

New consultation fee:	£300
Follow up consultation fee:	£225

Repeat prescription fee £25 (patients must have been reviewed within the last 6 months)

Quotes for surgical procedures will be dependent on the number and or site of lesions to be removed and will be provided to patients after the initial consultation

Notes:

- Dr Wong is a registered provider for all major insurance companies for skin consults and treatments. Dr Wong also consults non-insured, self-funding patients.
- If you have private medical insurance, please check with your provider about your cover and authorisation for outpatient consultations and any tests or procedures.
- A £50 fee will be charged for non-attendances and late cancellations made less than 24 hours of your scheduled appointment
- Strictly no treatments will be administered without an initial consultation with Dr Wong
- Where blood tests are necessary, these will be invoiced directly to self-funding patients by the private hospital
- Procedure and treatment fees are exclusive of consultation charges (new and follow up), private hospital fees and pathology analysis fees where biopsies are taken
